TOWN OF UNION PARKS & RECREATION DEPARTMENT
GENERAL RULES FOR SEASONAL EMPLOYEES

1. Prior employment with the Parks & Recreation Department does not guarantee an applicant a job. You must reapply every year. Employment decisions for past employees will be based on previous performance evaluations, scheduling needs and budget considerations.
2. The ending date you list on your application is important. The department determines personnel levels based on the length of time employees can work during the season. The department expects that you will commit to the dates you have listed. Employees who leave prior to the date listed may not be considered for future employment despite quality performance level.
3. Seasonal employees MAY NOT take vacations. We hire seasonal employees to work during our busy season – THE SUMMER. Our schedule, therefore, cannot accommodate seasonal employee vacations.
4. Work schedules will be developed by your supervisor. Applicants must understand that weekend and evening work is often required and that your schedule may change to accommodate staffing needs. Employees may be allowed to switch scheduled work days with another employee provided the switch is approved by their supervisor. Remember that YOU are still responsible for YOUR work schedule. The department understands that employees may have other jobs; however, job scheduling cannot be based on employees' other job commitments – only department needs. Schedules can be changed only with approval of your supervisor.
5. Proper dress is required for all seasonal employees. You will be required to purchase two (2) shirts at a cost of $10.00. Parks and Recreation shirts MUST be worn at all times when on duty. Employees not in uniform will be sent home. The Town will not pay the employee the time taken to change clothing. Lost or stolen shirts must be replaced by the employee. Specific uniform requirements are listed below.

PARK DIRECTORS/PARK, POOL and BALLFIELD ATTENDANTS
