TOWN OF UNION TO WELCOME "FRANK LONGO ORIGINALS FINE JEWELRY" AT GRAND RE-OPENING & RIBBON CUTTING CEREMONY

(Endwell, NY) Town of Union officials announce that "Frank Longo Originals Fine Jewelry" owner Frank Longo will soon host his expanded business's Grand Re-Opening and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony. Besides expanding his business, Mr. Longo is also opening an art gallery featuring established and new artists.

The Grand Re-Opening and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony of "Frank Longo Originals Fine Jewelry" will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, November 20, 2019 at 4410 Watson Boulevard, Johnson City in the Town of Union.

"Frank Longo Originals Fine Jewelry" is a long-standing business providing high quality jewelry, custom-made designs, repairs and restoration of heirloom jewelry and redesigning of older pieces. Mr. Longo has designed and manufactured jewelry in the community for over 37 years.

Town officials will present "Frank Longo Originals Fine Jewelry" with a Certificate of Business Appreciation at the 11:00 a.m. Grand Re-Opening and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on Wednesday, November 20th.

In discussing his business, Mr. Longo said, "It's truly a pleasure for my son, Vito, and I to serve the people of this community. We're excited about our expansion and the new art gallery, and we look forward to continuing to provide customers with quality service and professionalism."

For further information, please contact Frank Longo at (607) 321-8450.
